Goodbye Hallie. Goodbye to all of that.

You did t even have your OP. My god your cold. You are without heart and soul. You know you when you get sober you have to face all that emptiness. The whole you've filled with secrets and sex and drugs and beer and likes your whole life. Sobriety is beautiful for me because I am capable of loving more then myself. I am positive I am the only person in your entire life who chose to live knowing how empty you are and how cruel you cam be. The only single person with enough arrogance to think I could fix you. You're beyond fixing Hallie.

How does it feel to know you will never touch me again. You will never feel my skin on yours you will never kiss my lips you will never hold me hand you will never feel my breath or my hands or hold me or even see my average penis again. I hope it hurts the way you've hurt me.

I'm emailing Joe to tell him to try get me out of the lease when school ends. If he can't I'm going to ask if he can at least try to rent it over the summer. You f you want to take over the rent let me know now. Movers are coming to pack this weekend when you are in DE and the kids are farmed out to whomever you can get to take them for a weekend.

What would Beau do right now Hallie. He would tell me to leave and then he would push you under that pool cover and never think another thought about it.

You do I know you do. But you either purposely or sun consciously or just beat b/c it's a the way you've learned to behave- do things "to me" not call , not call alone, refuse to discuss, attack, pay no attention, accuse. You touch me when it's for you. And then you deny me your attention physical or otherwise. You hide your life from me no matter how mundane I is you make sure to spin me out of control.

If the first some meeting I went to without Beau I did what you did to me I know exactly what his reaction would be.

Remember how he cried genuinely cried and his face would scrunch up and his voice would crack and he would put his forehead hard on my chest and he'd grab me by the shoulders hard and twist my shirt in his hand or dig his fingers into my arm and say why why why why would you do that to me why why and he would punch where his head was and grit his teeth and say your such an asshole in his clenched teeth look and his neck veins would pop and I would try to hug him and he would push me away and then his breathing would stop and his face would go slack and his tears would still roll and he would sit defeated and say why the fuck hunter. Why?

Well if I had done what you did to me last night if I refused to tell beau anything about what was hung on at rehab what the people were like who my friends were and why and gave my therapist his nun we and made the check in with beau and beau could have any information they had and...

What you did to me last night what you did to me after I forgave you for not speaking to me for 3 days (just because) making me come to you after belittling me. Making me feel small and trite for wanting to know who you were sharing your life with .... and on and on and all seemingly on purpose. And to top off then using my utter frustration to work me up to the point where I am actually insane.

I've written this same text 20 times at least. It will never change. You will never change. You are so arrogant that you mostly don't read this.

So Hallie I mean what I say. We are no longer a couple a partnership a team friends or lovers or drug buddies.

We are not even in laws technically.

I only can remember hurting beau like that 3 times and they were all because runways drunk and stupid and out my self at risk in every way (that was the worst thing I could do to him- I not once genuinely hurt his feelings or wound him up or... I saw him cry and agonize like that a lot though - over dad over Lilly over Melissa butler but mostly over you.

Why, why, why . Why would you do that to me...

Why why why would she do that to me.

I'm not fixing what I thought I could. And I'm not helping anyone least myself. And you won't even acknowledge let alone address any single notion that you are on any way flawed.

And that is delusional that is empty that is cold and it must be lonely being you Hal. Because why is the question so many people you "love" ask themselves most of all though me. I am not broken Hallie but to know you put him through the same bullshit pain makes me angry and violent. And you always say no one can make you feel anything only you acne make yourself feel something.

What a stupid fucking quote. I know I have the power to make you hurt to make you feel small or to lick you up and make you feel strong.

You always choose to exploit my weakness and ration out the positive rarely Hallie you are the most masterful manipulator. Defining my anger as reckless drug behavior. Hallie the only reason I came to you by phone 5 days ago and told you I loved you and How much and the reasons why and what we could do together and your strength etc on Sunday was b/c you had just re-re-relapsed. Everything I said then was true and I begged you to make it different this time . Let me in let me be a part of it listen to me and I'll listen to you. Consider my needs like I always consider yours .

The first thing that asked of you-- you immediately denied . Then denied again then denied again and again. The request was simply put the phone where I can see you naked. That's it --your shower when you're getting changed...you made me feel perverted wrong.

You refused to the point of saying I don't understand the pressure you're under as if I'm not and the weight of parenting etc. things were so difficult that they would not allow you to place a phone in the other side of the shower so I could see you naked.

I guess I should apologize for asking that of you it was clearly too much. And then you are inconsiderate at least in my eyes beyond measure --going to your first AA meeting and a meeting after at BPM and not telling me or just simply hitting the auto reply on your phone (in meeting) when I called 45 minutes after the meeting to because I was worried sick you couldn't type : I'll call you in a little bit. then when you do reach me you say that you answered Daria's call because Daria has the kids and they matter I do know your exact words so yes Hallie seeing that this pattern has happened a dozen times 50 times my frustration with you is beyond erratic behavior. my behavior frim UOUR JUDGMENT from 2,500 mikes away with two days more sobriety than you and I'm alone without much support from family or personal friends.

And your support is to tell people my plan is the wrong plan I will fail I'm not sober.

Hallie let's remind everyone I. The last 2.5 years I've spent 8 months in actual days in a program of some sort . I spent 1.2 years either blowing into a breathalyzer or peeing in a cup . And only failed once.

What is your record Hallie. You're an amazing partner my love.

Uncle Jim told ME that you told him that you are sending a moving truck this weekend and moving to CA. Stop creating your own drama and blaming everyone else. You are not helping yourself (or me) with our true goal - sobriety. I hope you will love me again when we are feeling better and stronger and we can be together and live our lives together. I always love you.

How many times will I "allow" myself to be worked up and throw off course by you Hallie.

Now if I were to rant about you texting "I love you hunter" and say WTF Hallie how many times do I have to say that's iust words Hallie --- show me how much you love me — clearly everyone would say what a maniac.

UNLESS they knew I've said that - you texting me those 4 words exactly in the middle of feeling like I'm about to implode - is like putting a stick of dynamite under a powder keg in an munitions factory.

I think I've actually said those exact words 50 times.

And what do I say could fix it all Hallie- what have I now become convinced by you is not only a perversion disturbing fetish I'm ashamed of but I so also something so toxic and disgusting to you that you refuse — it's like not throwing a life's preserver to someone you just pushed off the boat.

You're at a hotel at the beach using and your kids are a mile away at my parents eight bedroom house.
And I get it. But please don't tell me I don't show up for you Hallie.
You basically didn't talk to me for a month.
And I get it.
It's hard and awful and sad and painful.
