NARRATIVE

AUTHOR WOLLSTEIN, TONYA (231563)	DATE/TIME 11/01/2016 1714
SUBJECT INITIAL NARRATIVE 1563

On 11/01/16 I was asked to assist with a Cyberstalking case by Sergeant Graaff.

Sergeant Graaff introduced me to Benjamin Long, an FBI agent who was investigation reported death threats made to Stripe Inc.

Stripe Inc is a payment processing company. Sylvia Catzen and Joshua Havens had an account with Stripe Inc. Sylvia and Joshua had a payment dispute with Stripe Inc.

Joshua began emailing customer support at Stripe making threats. The emails I received from Stripe Inc were redacted. I have contacted Stripe and requested the original unredacted emails.

Joshua wrote "I might drop this m RV straight through your f front doors and kill all you motherfukers my God damn self you pieces of s for stealing my F money because you know what do I have PTSD and quite frankly if you could take my f money I have the f right to kill all you motherfukers so F you piece of s give me my f money and if you don't give my my money I'm going to drop a m or your f front door and shoot all you m your fand get my s back."

Joshua also wrote "It's alright though, I will find your f* president and kill him with my bare hands I already have a plan for you."

"The first thing I plan on doing is driving my Class A 36-foot motorhome 3 your f front doors and shooting everyone in the office through a window. After all that area is clear I'm going to f kidnap your CEO. I'm going going to break his f arms and legs it take him to a remote location for Far Away. I will then place his unmovable carcass in a deep freezer full of lime and run an IV into his throat. I will set up a time delay camera and watch him rot alive and have it recorded so I can watch it over and over and over again and I'm pretty sure that his pocket change is about what the f y'all stole from me so I figure we'll be even"

[REDACTED]

"And you're not but a f day's drive away"

"I can prove where that money came from. Go ahead and call the police for the death threats. I'm at 3502 Drummond Avenue Vancouver Washington 98661. I welcome the police involvement at this point due to the high amount of stress that you have caused my PTSD riddled ass to endure because you're trying to hold someone liable and terms 4 things that they're not even f responsible for

It's alright though. I will find your f president and kill him with my bare hands I already have a plan for you.

The first thing I plan on doing is driving my Class A 36-foot motorhome 3 your f front doors and shooting everyone in the office through a window. After all that area is clear I'm going to f kidnap your CEO. I'm going going to break his f arms and legs it take him to a remote location for Far Away. I will then place his unmovable carcass in a deep freezer full of lime and run an IV into his throat. I will set up a time delay camera and watch him rot alive and have it recorded so I can watch it over and over and over again and I'm pretty sure that his pocket change is about what the f y'all stole from me so I figure we'll be even have a good day"

"yes the death threats are f real over my f money"

"Well isn't this interesting stripe. Hi it's me Josh again. I just close the account that was linked That Stole My Money and now you can return my money to me.

Like I said you have 24 hours no no no no no no no no no no no no no. You have until 8 o'clock in the freaking morning to return my funds to me or we're all going to have a wonderfully busy day explaining ourselves two police officers Social Security workers Unitus and anybody in between because quite frankly I don't give a damn who stole my money but what it looks like to me is that you stole my money.

And that's what it looks like to every f body else. It is now 10 p.m. I am in Pacific Standard Time. You got 10 hours to retrieve my money and send it back to me from the same f bank account from Braveheart Pilates and yoga but you took it from because I had moved that money over so I can access it and you f took it from me over Sylvia accounts

Andover a business I'm not even on the board for. It is a federal offense to steal from Social Security recipients. 8 o'clock in the f morning if my s's not in the in the account you'll be hearing from the police, attorney, and I might drop this m RV straight through your f front doors and kill all you motherfukers my God damn self you pieces of s for stealing my f money because you know what do I have PTSD and quite frankly if you could take my f money I have every f right to kill all you motherfukers so f you piece of s give me my f money and if you don't give me money I'm going to drop a m or your f front door and shoot all you m your f money and get my s back.

Have a nice day"

Joshua posted a video on YouTube and on his Facebook page in which he admits to sending the threatening emails and specifically talks about threatening to drive his RV through the company's front doors.

Stripe Inc notified their employees of the threats and put security measures in place to assist in protecting them. Stripe Inc was in fear that Joshua would carry out his threats.

Joshua was interviewed by FBI agent Benjamin A Long. Benjamin reported Joshua admitted to writing and sending the threatening emails and said he was glad to do it if it got someone to listed to him.

Joshua's RV (OR License Plate H133720)is parked in front of 3205 Drummond Ave Vancouver, WA. Joshua was contacted by agents at this address.

On 11/3/16 I contacted Joshua at this location along with Officer Ripp and Officer Rasmussen. Officer Rasmussen placed Joshua in handcuffs. I checked for fit and double locked the cuffs while Officer Rasmussen spoke with Joshua's wife, Sylvia Catzen. See Officer Rasmussen's supplemental report.

I read Joshua the Miranda warning. Joshua indicated he understood his rights by sayin, "Yes ma'am" at 16:46.

Joshua admitted to sending threatening emails to Stripe Inc. Joshua said, "If someone steals your money you're going to threaten to kick their ass".

Joshua said, "I threatened to drive my RV down there sideways into their building."

Joshua became more and more agitated as I spoke to him. Joshua appeared to be suffering from mental health issues and told me he had PTSD. Joshua became less able to focus as I spoke to him.

When I asked Joshua about threatening Stripe's president specifically, Joshua told me he didn't threaten their president. He said, "It was someone else, it doesn't matter"

I told Joshua I saw the email he sent where he stated he was going to put an IV in and drain the president's blood, Joshua stated, "The IV wasn't for that."

Joshua started crying and telling me Stripe had "ruined my life". Joshua appeared to me more agitated and was not answering questions. I escorted Joshua to my patrol vehicle and transported him to CCSO Jail.

While enroute to jail, Joshua told me Stripe had taken money out of an account that his social security money was in. Joshua insisted Stripe Inc should be charged with a crime.

Joshua became more agitated and as I approached the jail began banging his head on the plexi-glass partition in my patrol vehicle. I asked the Deputies in the jail to help me escort him inside right away as I was concerned for his safety.

Joshua was escorted into CCSO jail by the deputies. Joshua was compliant and followed their directions.

I booked Joshua into CCSO Jail on 5 counts of Felony Cyberstalking (RCW 9.61.260).

say.

Sylvia confirmed that she and Josh owed a credit card company 'Stripe' money and Josh had made threats towards them regarding money owed and / or taken by Stripe

I asked Sylvia what kind of threats Josh has made and she told me Josh has made threats like, "burning them down and driving down there" and she was not sure what other threats were made. I asked Sylvia if Josh made a threat such as driving down there and driving the RV through the business and she confirmed he had.

I asked Sylvia if she was present when Josh made these threats to the employees at this business (Stripe) and she told me, "Yea, I was right there".

I asked Sylvia why Josh was making threats to these subjects and she replied, "Because they have stolen all of our money".

In talking with Sylvia she also told me Josh made the threats because he had post-traumatic stress and she further indicated that the subjects at Stripe deserved to be harassed and threatened because of what they had done to them.

Sylvia was told Josh was being arrested for harassment and it was a crime to threaten another person with bodily harm which clearly Josh had done.

Upon ending my contact with Sylvia, Officer Wollstein was advised of what I had learned. Upon further watching Officer Wollstein deal with Josh, she was observed to be calm and speaking softly to Josh who appeared to immediately get excited and emotion during their conversation. Josh Havens was transported to jail by Officer Wollstein and this report was created to document the above information.
