Elliott Franklin Ammons
Elliott.f.ammons@us.army.mil
Home Phone: (434) 284-1552

OBJECTIVE:
>   Obtain a Position as an All Source Intelligence Analyst.

SUMMARY OF QUALIFICATIONS:

 - TS//SCI active SSBI Clearance
-Three years experience as an Intelligence Analyst in South Korea and The National Ground Intelligence Center
-Three years experience in the exploitation of various collection assets as an RFI manager
-Two years experience as an Intelligence Analyst in the operation of the ASAS -Light system, All Source Analysis Operating System and various classified systems in South Korea.
-Two years experience in supervising a team of analysts working in Joint Intelligence Ace analyzing information and imagery products for the Third Republic of Korea Army HQ.
-One year experience in Database Management and its utilization in Pattern Trend Analysis for OIF/OEF
-Four years experience researching intelligence information on various classified systems i.e. JWICS, PATHFINDER

EDUCATION:

2006-2006	Basic Leadership Course	FT. Knox, KY
1998-2002	Graduated from Miami Palmetto Senior High school	Miami, FL

MILITARY EXPERIANCE:

Duties include: Writing assessments on Afghanistan, working with GIS to create plots of patterns in the country, research on classified systems JWICS,SIPERNET, PATHFINDER,IC,ANCHORY and other classified engines. Researching and working with HUMINT, and SIGNIT data. Trained on OGRE and WARFIGHTER.

2005-Present   2nd MI National Group, National Ground Intelligence Center
>   TEAM LEADER
>   -Supervisor of a Team of analysts providing intelligence products for OIF/OEF
>   -Provide Research Analysis and written assessments on Afghanistan.
>   - Maintain an up-to-date Database of SIGACTS
>   -Using Microsoft products to create a Trend Pattern Analysis Template for International forces for OIF
- -Assembling and proofreading intelligence reports and assisting in consolidating them into Army intelligence
- -Receiving and processing incoming reports and messages

Duties included: PASS-K, ADOCS, and ASAS system, ASAS-Light, RWS, M3 and COLISEUM. ASAS system operator for targeting information and correlating North Korean forces into a database. ASAS-Light operator for map productions, targeting production, and database collection .RWS system operator was used for database, and targeting assessments. M3 for research and assessment writing. COLISEUM proficient for submitting RFI's and tracking them as the RFI manager and tasking out collection assets. ADOCS operator for tracking and targeting artillery during.

2003-2005   Combat Support Coordination Team #3 , Camp Yong-In, South Korea
INTELLIGENCE TEAM LEADER:
-Managed a team of Analysts in the production of Joint Intelligence assessments
-Provided accurate analysis and assessments of ongoing events pertaining to North Korea.
- Database Manager of North Korean forces utilizing the ASAS-Light system
-Maintain and report Targeting information.
-RFI manager
-Lead Analyst during major exercises

- -Preparing all-source intelligence products to support the combat commander
- -Assisting in establishing and maintaining systematic, cross-referenced intelligence records and files
- -Assisting in determining the significance and reliability of incoming information
- -Assisting in the analysis and evaluation of intelligence holdings to determine changes in enemy capabilities, vulnerabilities and probable courses of action
- -Storing and retrieve intelligence data using computers

2002-2003   D CO. 309TH MI, FT Huachuca, AZ AIT 96B Intel Analyst course.

2002-2002   A CO. 313TH Training BN, FT. Jackson, SC Basic Training.

PROFESSIONAL ACHIVEMENTS
-Co-author on an assessment published by NGIC and wrote another assessment as the founding author.