Remylet 5/25/64 and Washington Field letter dated 7/8/64.

On February 19, 1964, XCG [6589] SA (S) who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that MARTINKUS together with his wife arrived approximately ten days ago as a repatriate from Lithuania. Source understands that MARTINKUS claims to have been born in Chicago, but he was allowed to enter the United States even though nobody had sponsored him. Source learned it took approximately five years for MARTINKUS to get into the United States. He further advised that MARTINKUS was penniless when he arrived in Chicago. Source advised that MARTINKUS was given a job as a janitor at the Holy Cross Hospital and resides in the immediate vicinity of the hospital (S)

On February 28, 1964, XANDRIUS DAUGIRDAS, Panel Source (protect identity), who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that MARTINKUS originally arrived from Lithuania and is presently residing with his wife and daughter in a basement apartment at 2653 West 69th Street, Chicago, Illinois. Source learned that MARTINKUS was born in the United States and was repatriated as a United States citizen. The source also advised that MARTINKUS originally was taken to Lithuania by his parents and educated there and was engaged in Lithuania as a farmer. Source also advised that MARTINKUS' wife and daughter were born in Lithuania (S) d

On March 9, 1964, PETER X MARTINKUS, 4505 South Paulina Street, Chicago, Illinois, advised SA JOHN F. GENIS that the subject, his wife and daughter were brought to his home by MICHAEL VAZNIUS, but to the best of his knowledge the Informant
