Area in Ukraine hit by chole outbreak

Stop Russian Aggression!
See what you can do

By Interfax-Ukraine. Published July 24, 2011 at 4:58 pm

A medical authority said one more person had been diagnosed with cholera and hospitalized in Mariupol

Photo by Ura inform

A medical authority said one more person had been diagnosed with cholera and hospitalized in Mariupol, Ukraine, bringing the total number of cases in the current local outbreak to 24.

The new patient, aged 36, lives in one of the nearby villages, the Donetsk regional sanitary and epidemic prevention service said in a statement.

Moreover, 12 people in Mariupol had been registered as cholera vibrio carriers, the service said.

We use cookies to ensure that we give you the best experience on our website. We don't share any information about you with third parties and we never will.

Got it, thanks

It said two cholera patients and three vibrio carriers remained hospitalized in the city currently and that they were all in a satisfac condition.

Stop Russian Aggression!
See what you can do

We'd like to show you notifications for the latest news and updates.

Kyiv Post

Cancel Allow

True Market Insiders

Man Who Predicted 2020 Crash Issues

Biggest stock market event in 20 years is almos here. And the next 2 months could deci...

CLICK

ADVERTISEMENT
ADVERTISEMENT

We use cookies to ensure that we give you the best experience on our website. We don't share any information about you with third parties and we never will.

Got it, thanks