Hello how are you? I was wondering if you were in a position to help me out. I am in the process of acquiring some funds but it won't be speedy enough and I am not speaking to my brother or working at the club any longer do to a lack of privacy of my personal phone . He thought zooming in on my phone and reading my text messages was his right and proceeded to shame me on the speaker. I was humiliated and left and I am not speaking to him. I'm sure there is a civil case there among other things he is doing in the club but that's not what I'm about. Sorry I'm going off subject. Back to what I'm contacting you about. I need surgery. I have a abdominal hernia and I'm also needing back surgery to fuse my lower back. I have already had my pre operation tests done for the hernia but unfortunately my insurance will only cover 80% because it's not an emergency and I'm not in extreme pain. My back surgery will be covered except for my co pay and medications afterward. Would you be willing to loan me approximately or any amount towards my goal of 5000. I've asked a few other friends and nothing. I was hoping you were in a position to perhaps help. I would pay you back and could even detail your car for you monthly for as long as you see fit. I don't know what to do and I'm in pain. Any proof of these surgeries and aliments I can provide. This isn't a scam it's for real. Thank you for considering my request I appreciate your time and hope you are doing well.
😊 Shawna

Biden for president!!!! Yes please!

Your pops should have Bernie or Michele as a running mate. That's a win for us democrats. You do realize when I first registered to vote I am a registered republican. Bit that is not my view today or for years. I'm so excited waiting for the official announcement.
