I have your room
At soho grand they just need your card when you come up

Dec 29, 2018, 4:57 PM

Charge your card phone and hit me if you need anything

Let's plan on catching up after noon tomorrow. If you're still up for it my doctor and I will come back to your hotel and get you squared away

Hey no more choices for Hunter station seeing you tomorrow through detox and first couple days at the house. Like you said it's voluntary and I'll do what I want in the end. But if I trust you and I know you're treating me with respect I give you full permission to make it the next few days as comfortable for me as possible while chained to a radiator like the girl in Black Snake Moansx

I got you brother. Be safe tonight and hit me tomorrow

Let me know how you're doing buddy. I can start to organize the treatment plan if you're ready.

I'll need to talk to you before 11:30 buddy

The following contempt and pure meanness is definitely directed towards you it try not to take it all that way. It's all true and it really really is but I would never say at least half of it to your face because you're also hummable and honest and seemingly fair and kind.

It's all coming from the pace of really not caring anymore and I mean not like saying I don't fucking care Doug and still doing business with him I mean the "I don't fucking care" of lighting up a fucking stem ON AIR FORCE ONE on the way toto the 60th anniversary(crossing of the E.Pettus bridge (most historical civil rights march probably other than Gah di's his last 10 miles of the march to throw the. Ruth should salt back in the sea.)

Ones learning g that you should never have been so weak and ruled by commerce not ethics to care and the other is really fucking not caring

This whole slew of real vitriol come a from one little thing. About the truck.

You said you wanted Tim kit to park it take care of long term blah blah but. What you really meant is you didn't trust me with my truck keys. Well this I really don't care Matt.

Nope on 11 not until 4:30/5 am xactky as you said and don't talk to my dad u til you speak to me I. Fact never talk to anyone I. My family it that says they kkkw me until you speak to me please and. Man why's the truck across the street a d why won't they give me keys. And buddy less than two years ago you texted that it would be $8,500 p/m. Couple final things. When is said respect why meant is this —if you thought it were even slightly concerned about me driving two blocks or taking my truck later that day what you say to someone that is smarter than you more sophisticated and knows more about their addictions in particular and probably yours and your dual bums sit diagnosis and the truck you drive and the house in amagansett and that saying you're front Chicago when you're no more from Chicago to a person from where my wife grew up than a framer from Cedar Rapids

Brother long term
Parking was full. Let me know if I can help.

Got you set up in a hotel as you requested

Matt come on man . I know the staff at the soho better than your wife knows the Roxy i didn't ask you insisted

And Matt that just seemed like well he thinks he's like getting me to the room and taking my car from me and that cling me in and making contact with the staff (he thinks I don't know) and I thought well shit as long as he does it just as well as a driving range professional could make a first time golfer believe he was actually a professional just no glaring errors like calling the putter a driver or driving the golf cart up on the green or parking his car / across the street then what the he'll figure out not to treat me like all the other chumps bcc ljlon aAb. B?! Vhvbvvv ""'

As long as his buddies not just guys he's a generous tipper to/ but guys that he got their daughter into the naval academy it had he had to VO residence and met then use his apartment to stay and cost the White House. Gouts he paid their health insurance premiums for anonymously.

Alll those guys told they werre made aware I was around and they were supposed to look out or after me make sure I was okZ

What the fuck Matt????

So buddy the lot very well
May have been full but wh would you call the manager at the Roxy who knows exactly what you do and timbering him client and say nothing and think that manager out of respect to you wouldn't say hey just for his own well being take care of me so and so. How is talikjng to Chris for that long a good idea .
