Good morning I hope you know you are worth it

I'm more than worth it. It's a fucking crime against humanity fior me to keep myself absent from the field and that's why I haven't run I have. ReAl and amazingly no turning back plan that starts in 30 minutes send me wire instructions and what I owe you.

Are you coming back to the view

No I'm not but I am going away for treatment long term.

Good for
You where are you going

Talk to Karlley she and Jim are only people I will talk to about specifics thanks see you in a few months
