China's Ye Jianming to relinquish stake and role in CEFC Europe

James Kynge in London YESTERDAY

The chairman and founder of China's mysterious CEFC Group, Ye Jianming, is set to relinquish his shareholding and management role in CEFC Europe, according to an announcement on CEFC's website.

The announcement follows reports of Mr Ye's detention, which has left investors, bankers and governments scrambling for information on his whereabouts.

Marcela Hrda, executive vice-president of CEFC Europe, was quoted in the announcement as saying that a "new shareholder" has emerged.

"The development of our projects will continue and we look forward to working with a new shareholder. We see a number of synergies between CEFC Europe's activities and activities not only in China but around the world," said Ms Hrda.

It was not clear from the news release who the new shareholder was or whether this shareholder would also be taking a stake in CEFC China Energy Company, which is described on the firm's website as "the largest private company in Shanghai".

The announcement added that CEFC Europe had also rescinded a request to the Czech central bank to approve raising its stake in a Prague-based financial company, J&T, to 50 per cent from 9.9 per cent.

CEFC Europe said the decision to pull the request had been taken "in view of the forthcoming change in shareholding structure".

The shifts follow news this month that Chinese asset manager Huarong has bought 36 per cent of a CEFC subsidiary, filings show, potentially giving it a role in the company's plan to buy a $9bn stake in Russian oil company Rosneft.

State-controlled Huarong's purchase of the CEFC subsidiary stake follows the seizure of insurer

Thank you for exposing these crooks and criminals. Is there anything in the emails linking China or the Bidens criminally to anyone in Canada? Trudeau needs to be taken down too.
