We are very grateful to you for support. As you know we rely on loyal, individual supporters like you to match Labour's Union funding and help us get the Conservative message out to the public.

Over the next five years we aim to build up our campaigning strength and I do hope you will continue your magnificent support. If you would like to show your support by way of volunteering or would like further information about what the association or forthcoming events, then please do not hesitate to get in contact.
