Date: 16 SEP 2013

Dear Mr Pulfer,

Thank you so much for your letter to the Mayor. I hope you don't mind if I follow up on our telephone conversation last week.

The Mayor would be delighted to remain an Honorary Member of the Battle of Britain Historical society, on the understanding that it is a non-fundraising body without charitable status. If for any reason these parameters change would you mind getting back to us.

The Mayor has asked me to pass on his good wishes to yourself and Mr Bond and to thank you for taking the trouble to write.

Very best wishes,

Yours sincerely

Mr Boris Johnson
Mayor of London
City Hall
London

Dear Boris Johnson

I write to you as Bill Bond founder of the Battle of Britain Historical Society, has handed over the reins to me, following the death of his wife Kate last year, he has also been advised by his doctor to take full rest and no stress.

I note you are a supporter and on the Society letter heading, may I continue to use your name for this purpose?

Your continued support is valuable to the Society.

We must ensure the 'Few' are never forgotten.

Yours sincerely

John Pulfer JP
