PITT CLUB.

PC/Cand

8th December 2006

Dear Mr. Johnson.

I have great pleasure in informing you that at the annual Committee Meeting on 5th December you were elected a member of the Pitt Club of London. Your proposer and seconder are shown on the attached List of New Members.

I hope you will wish to proceed and I shall be grateful if you will let me have a cheque for £45 drawn in favour of The Pitt Club (entrance fee £25, plus £20 for the year 2007 subscription).

Next year's dinners will be held at Trinity House on Tuesday 22nd May, and the Cavalry & Guards Club on Wednesday 5th December 2007. The dinner money is usually £60, or thereabouts.

I enclose a List of Members, which is shortly to be updated.

The Pitt Club was founded in 1793 and the tradition is the Memory of William Pitt. You may be interested to read a short paper on Mr Pitt's Life, a copy of which I enclose. This was written by John Ehrman, who is one of our Members. William Hague, who is also a Member, has recently written an excellent biography published by Harper Collins which may interest you.

At the dinner we drink a toast, in silence, to The Immortal Memory. I feel sure that you will find our dinners remarkably happy events.

Please let me know your exact 'style' (decorations) etc.

I will tell you about the Pitt Club medals when we meet; they have, alas, become very rare and expensive but from time to time a member bequeaths his medal to the Club which is then placed in a ballot at one of the dinners.

On behalf of all Members may I welcome you most warmly and I hope you will dine often.

*Yours sincerely
Ross Murray*

Dear Boris,

I am sorry to trouble you but I never received your Standing Order Mandate for the annual membership subscription when you joined, and I would be grateful if you could send me a cheque for £20 payable to the Pitt Club for 2009 and complete the enclosed Standing Order Mandate for future years. I enclose a stamped addressed envelope for your convenience.

I very much hope you will be able to come to a dinner soon, but appreciate there are many calls on your time.

Yours sincerely
Ross Murray
