SEOUL, KOREA

January 8, 2024

The Rt Hon Boris Johnson
Former Prime Minister
United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland

Your Excellency,

I am writing to let you know that I will soon be leaving office as Minister of Foreign Affairs after 20 months of service and resuming my parliamentary duties by returning to the National Assembly of the Republic of Korea. It has been a tremendous honor to help chart and implement the Korean Government's Global Pivotal State initiative and contribute to freedom, peace and prosperity on the Korean Peninsula and around the world.

It has also been a great privilege and pleasure to work closely with you to further strengthen the bilateral relationship between Korea and the United Kingdom. I express my sincere appreciation for the support that you and your government have rendered to me during my term as Foreign Minister.

I trust you will be as unstinting in extending your support and cooperation to my successor as you have been with me. I wish you continued good health and every success in all your noble endeavors. All the best for a Happy New Year!

Yours sincerely,
