MILTON MANOR HOUSE, ABINGDON, OXFORDSHIRE

OX14 4EN

Dear Boris (if we may),
Now that you've settled in, we - that is Gwenida & myself both of whom worked for The Spectator (though really under Alexander Chancellor's Regime) - would like to ask you & your family over lunch in the near future - especially now that the weather's improved!

May we offer you the choice of two dates? Thursday 31st August which is the last day the House is open to the public & so worth inc a tour of the house (no charge!) with one of our proper guides - or Monday 14th September when the house is closed - but there will still be plenty to amuse the kids (in the way of animals / boats / etc)

If you can make it, that would be very nice
- about 12.30. (Incidentally we have no e-mail or computers, so a postcard would probably be the best way of reply) Oh, and no publicity or papers please. If you can shake 'em off - - -

Yours sincerely,

Anthony Muckle

Dear Andrew

Thank you so much for your invitation to the Milton Manor.

I am so sorry to have missed the date

as proposed but hope you

WT may be able to drop 6s some day
