

Secret Squirrels in Action

23 Jul 2007

secret squirrel.jpg

According to The Washington Post's Al Kaman, an editorial in the July 10 edition of the Iranian newspaper Resalat reported the following:

"A few weeks ago, 14 squirrels equipped with espionage systems of foreign intelligence services were captured by [Iranian] intelligence forces along the country's borders. These trained squirrels, each of which weighed just over 700 grams, were released on the borders of the country for intelligence and espionage purposes. According to the

Show Full Article

Related Topics: DefenseTech

You May Also Like

Russians Stymied in Ukraine; Finland Favors Joining NATO

Okinawa Marks 50 Years of End to US Rule Amid Protests

4 Air Force Cadets May Not Graduate Due to Vaccine Refusal

Junior Sailors Scrambling for a Place to Live After the Navy Shuttles Its Barracks at Key West

Military News

- Military Opinion
- Marine Corps
- Army
- Coast Guard

Select Service

Army

Marines

Navy

Air Force

National Guard

Coast Guard

Space Force

Spouse

Login

Most Popular Military News

Air Force General Convicted in Historic Court-Martial Avoids Jail Time

Cooley faced a maximum sentence of seven years of confinement, separation and loss of pay and benefits.

Navy's Top Enlisted Leader Tells George Washington Crew at Least They Aren't 'Sleeping in a Foxhole Like a Marine'

Going Underground: Ukraine's Subterranean Fighters Highlight the Benefit – and Long

Three Children Died at Camp Lejeune on Same Day, Military Says

#1 Pocket Monocular

Why Is This $47 Monocular Better Than $3000 Telescopes?

