

Renacci Took Nearly Nothing from PACs and Employees of the Associations/Companies That Lobbied on the Bill Within Months of Introduction. Renacci received very little from entities involved in lobbying for the bill in the months leading up its introduction and his subsequent co-sponsorship. The latest donation was in July, when he received $1,000 from an executive of First National Bank; Renacci would not cosponsor the bill for another three months.

October 24, 2011: Renacci Co-Sponsored a Bill to Exempt One Bank from Dodd-Frank Provision. On October 24, 2011, Congressman Jim Renacci co-sponsored HR 3128, a bill designed to amend the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act to adjust the date on which consolidated assets are determined for purposes of exempting certain instruments of smaller institutions from capital deductions.

Of particular note is the fact it exempts Emigrant Savings Bank from a provision of the Dodd-Frank Act that affects banks with $15 billion or more in assets.

As of September 18, 2012, the bill had eight cosponsors, and was placed on the Union Calendar, Calendar No. 406 on June 29, 2012. HR 3128, accessed [9/17/12]
