

Mr. John M.G. Lanton
3213 Duke St. # 226
Alexandria, VA 22314
808-387-5661 (Mobile)
Email: jlanton@tmo.blackberry.net

Career Summary

Intelligence professional with over ten years of experience in counterterrorism, counter intelligence, counter narcotics, military sciences, and law enforcement. Proven expertise on Middle Eastern cultural and political issues with a basic command of the Arabic language. Personally conceived, managed, and participated in several of the FBI's premier intelligence operations countering hostile Middle East terrorist group activities in the Pacific.

DoD Top Secret security clearance with SCI access and current background investigation (SSBI 06/2004)

Consultant/ Analyst (HUMINT)

McNeil Technologies
6564 Loisdale Ct. Ste 900
Springfield, VA 22150

01/2006 to present,

Supervisor: James A. "Spider" Marks, Major General, (Ret.) 703-921-1600

- Provides counter intelligence support to Department of Defense collection activities.
- Selected as team lead for DoD HUMINT analytical cell.
- Coordinates logistical operations in the furtherance of overseas deployments.
- Serves as action officer for corporate Department of Intelligence
- Screens and interviews incoming candidates for HUMINT related positions.
- Extensive knowledge of SIGINT, HUMINT, MASINT, counter terrorism, counter intelligence, and law-enforcement (criminal organizations, corruption, money laundering) intelligence.
- Proficient with JWICS, SIPR, FBI Automated Case Support, M3, Analysts Notebook, Intelink, and Investigative Data Warehouse Applications

Task Force Officer/Investigator/Analyst

State of Hawaii

Department of Public Safety

Law Enforcement Division

Detailed to the Federal Bureau of Investigation, Joint Terrorism Task Force

300 Ala Moana Blvd. Rm 4-230

Honolulu, HI 96850

2003 to 2006, Supervisor: SSA Michael Gadsden 808-566-4300

- Served as primary case agent on the top eight International Terrorism (IT) investigations in the Honolulu Division of the FBI focusing on 20+ targets.
- Initiated, developed, and managed 25+ IT investigations through source handling, collections management, and covert operations.
- Responsible for recruitment and handling of several prolific Middle Eastern sources.

- At present, has personally conducted 400+ strategic interviews/debriefings of Arab and Southeast Asian subjects resulting in the generation of numerous Intelligence Information Reports (IIRs) supporting the CI community.
- Collects, analyzes, and disseminates intelligence gleaned from the simultaneous handling of numerous clandestine HUMINT sources utilizing JWICS, SIPR, FBI Automated Case Support, M3, Analysts Notebook, Intelink, Choicepoint, Lexis Nexis, OGA retrieval systems similar to Anchory, and Investigative Data Warehouse Applications.
- Researched and managed collection activities regarding countries, persons, and terrorist organizations of interest utilizing JWICS, SIPRNET, Intelink, M3, IDW, ACS, and OGA retrieval systems. Proficient with Power Point, and Lotus Notes.
- Manages a diverse team of over ten intelligence, investigative, and technical experts from numerous agencies working on sensitive national security investigations of highest importance to senior policy makers.
- Responsible for conducting liaison activity with 32+ CI and LE agencies in support of CT/CI mission.
- Briefs senior national security and U.S. military officials on the current domestic and international (SAEDA) threats of foreign terrorist organizations obtained as case agent on IT investigations.
- Personally conceived, managed, and executed operations resulting in the identification and penetration of numerous clandestine operational facilities utilized in the expansion of extremist ideology in the Pacific theater.
- Trains federal and state investigators in Arab/Islamic culture and source recruitment.
- In depth training and experience in collection management with a focus on the threats, intentions, activities, capabilities, and tactics of existing and emerging foreign transnational and regional Shia, Palestinian, Persian Gulf, Central Asian, and North African terrorist groups.

State of Hawaii

Department of Public Safety

Law Enforcement Division

1111 Alakea St.

Honolulu, HI 96819

Supervisor: Lt. Robin Nagamine

2001-2003

- Conducted over 100 debriefings of suspected narcotics couriers.
- In depth training and experience in counter intelligence for organized crime and counter narcotics operations.
- Maintained a 100% conviction rate for Driving Under the Influence offenses.
- Responsible for supporting the department in maintaining a 97% conviction rate for Driving Under the Influence offenses.
- Conceived managed and executed numerous aggressive counter narcotics operations resulting in the development of new human intelligence sources.
- Selected for the Academic Achievement award by maintaining the highest GPA in the State Law Enforcement Recruit Course.
- Selected to the position of Field Training Officer for new recruits.

U.S. Army
CDR HHC 2-35
Schofield Barracks, HI 96857
Supervisor: SFC Earl Howell 808-655-0657
1995-2000

- Executed battlefield-level intelligence collection operations.
- In-depth training in counter-insurgency operations in an urban environment.
- Selection to Class Leader and Commandant's List in the Non Commissioned Officer's Academy.
- Led an infantry squad and fire team in small unit tactics such as reconnaissance, building entry, and room-clearing.
- Provided intelligence briefings and region backgrounders to Company/Platoon level elements.
- Awarded the Expert Infantryman's Badge, Parachutists Badge, and Air Assault Badge.
- Trained in debriefing detainees and liaison with local indigenous personnel.
- Assembled, operated, and performed maintenance on secure radio, and portable satellite communication devices.

EDUCATION:

M.A. Diplomacy/International Relations, Norwich University; GPA 3.80, Exp. 2007

B.A. Justice Administration, Hawaii Pacific University; GPA: 3.58 2002

FBI International Terrorism Basic Operations Course; Quantico, Virginia 2004

FBI International Terrorism Basic Source Development Course 2004

FBI International Terrorism Intermediate Interview and Interrogation Course 2005

FBI Counterterrorism: Strategy and Analysis Course 2005

Four Semesters of Arabic Language studies

Continuing Arabic Language studies, Middle East Institute, Washington, D.C.

FBI Domestic Terrorism Basic Operations Course; San Diego, California 2004

Surveillance Detection/Counter Surveillance, Springfield, VA, 2006

Proficient with JWICS, SIPR, FBI Automated Case Support, M3, Analysts Notebook, Intelink, and Investigative Data Warehouse Applications

Black Belt Yoshukai Karate (Placed in top ten, All Japan Full Contact Tournament, Miyazaki, Japan) 1993

DEA Basic Narcotics Investigators Course 2003

U.S. Army CID Counter Narcotics Investigators Course 2003

FBI Safety and Survival Course, LETSS 2003

U.S. Army Basic and Advanced Infantry Training 1996

U.S. Army Airborne School 1996

U.S. Army Air Assault School 1998

U.S. Army Light Fighters Communication course 1998

U.S. Army Non-Commissioned Officers Academy 1999

Intermediate speaking proficiency in Japanese

Novice speaking, reading, and writing proficiency in Arabic and Spanish.