

ORIGINS OF THE CABAL - PART 3

The cabal got into position to take over the world and to push their agenda worldwide. The time-frame between between 1800-1945 will show how they pushed a godless philosophy that would start wars.

In ORIGINS OF THE CABAL - PART 1, I went over how the cabal received their religion from the false gods of the ancient civilizations. PART 2 explains how they rejected the New Testament of Jesus Christ and organized into a secret religion that craves worldly power and control. In this section I will explain how the cabal have manipulated their way into every aspect of human life without anyone knowing it.

Most of my previous threads have covered this time period between 1800-1945. The ROTHSCHILD FAMILY HISTORY thread goes over the major events during this time and how the family caused them. THE SECRET SOCIETIES OF ALL 45 US PRESIDENTS dives mostly into freemasonry and the influence it had over the presidents. THE CREATION OF THE CENTRAL BANKS shows how the cabal laid out their master plan and ultimate goal. In this thread the focus will be on topics that show how the cabal have influenced the whole world under the power of ancient Kabbalah mysticism.

Remember, the main purpose of the kabbalists is to destroy Christianity by any means necessary so they can destroy God's chosen people. They have been infiltrating every aspect of culture since they moved out of Babylon and began to flourish during the Age of Enlightenment.

A Godless Society

The enlightenment movement was abused by the kabbalah to sway people away from Jesus and towards a godless way of thinking. This was the first step towards influencing the major philosophers of the 19th century.

The Spanish Inquisition and Karl Marx

Before we can talk about this time period we have to go back in time and talk about the beginnings of Crypto-Judaism. This all started in Spain and the arrival of the evil kabbalists from Babylon, which began a rift in the Spaniard society. The Inquisition was originally intended primarily to identify heretics among those who converted from Judaism to Catholicism. The regulation of the faith of newly converted Catholics was intensified after the royal decrees issued in 1492 and 1502 ordering Jews to convert to Catholicism or leave Castile, resulting in hundreds of thousands of forced conversions and the mass expulsions of Jews from Spain.

Here's a great article that dives deep into the kabbalists and Crypto-Judaism during the Spanish Inquisition.

Many of these crypto-jews went to Amsterdam and set up many synagogues. They were also know as Marrano or Sephardic Jews. One of the prominent rabbi families of the cypto-jews in Amsterdam were the Pressburg's who had been rabbis for at least a century. Hirschl Pressburg was the rabbi, while his son Isaac was acting as cantor of the synagogue. Isaac Heymans Pressburg (1747 - 1832) married Nanette Salomons Cohen (1731 - 1804) in 1785. They had a daughter Henriette Pressburg (1788 - 1863) who married Heinrich Marx, the father of Karl Marx.

Karl Marx, the creator of Communism, comes from a long line of cypto-jew kabbalists that can be traced back to the Spanish Inquisition. His best-known titles are the 1848 pamphlet The Communist Manifesto and the four-volume Das Kapital (1867–1883). Marx's political and philosophical thought had enormous influence on subsequent intellectual, economic, and political history. Born in Trier, Germany, Marx studied law and philosophy at the universities of Bonn and Berlin.

The Humboldtian model of higher education is a concept of academic education that emerged in the early 19th century in Prussia and whose core idea is a holistic combination of research and studies. Great intellectual achievements of German science is linked to it: Georg Wilhelm Friedrich Hegel, Karl Marx, Friedrich Nietzsche, Sigmund Freud, Theodor W. Adorno and Albert Einstein confessed themselves to it.

Wilhelm von Humboldt

Karl Marx, the creator of Communism, attended the University of Bonn in 1835 and Friedrich Nietzsche, the principal philosopher Adolf Hitler used in his Mein Kampf, attended the same university 30 years later in 1864. The University of Bonn is also located 2 hours away from the Rothschild's home base of Frankfurt.

Frankism and Friedrich Nietzsche

Frankism was a heretical Sabbatean Jewish religious movement of the 18th and 19th centuries, centered on the leadership of the Jewish Messiah claimant Jacob Frank, who lived from 1726 to 1791. Frank rejected religious norms and said that his followers were obligated to transgress as many moral boundaries as possible. At its height it claimed perhaps 50,000 followers, primarily Jews living in Poland, as well as in Central and Eastern Europe.

Frankists rejected the Talmud and recognized only the sacred book of Kabbalah, the Zohar. They stated that they regarded the Messiah-Deliverer as one of the embodiments of the three divinities.

Netanel Lederberg claims that Frank had a Gnostic philosophy wherein there was a "true God" whose existence was hidden by a "false God." This "true God" could allegedly be revealed only through a total destruction of the social and religious structures created by the "false God". For Frank, the very distinction between good and evil is a product of a world governed by the "false God." Lederberg compares Frank's position to that of Friedrich Nietzsche.

The statement "God is dead," is in several of Nietzsche's works (notably in The Gay Science) and has become one of his best-known remarks. The death of God may lead beyond bare perspectivism to outright nihilism, the belief that nothing has any inherent importance and that life lacks purpose.

Nietzsche was an undercover Frankist crypto-jew. His ancestral roots all point to being German but everything he said pointed to him being a Frankist. Many people thought he was German but Nietzsche let people know his disgust with the German people. At one point, Nietzsche becomes even more adamant about his Polish identity. "I am a pure-blooded Polish nobleman, without a single drop of bad blood, certainly not German blood." On yet another occasion, Nietzsche stated, "Germany is a great nation only because its people have so much Polish blood in their veins.... I am proud of my Polish descent."

Nietzsche began studying theology and classical philology at the University of Bonn in the hope of becoming a minister.

Friedrich Nietzsche was the major influence behind Adolf Hitler's philosophy. Hitler was a frequent visitor to the Nietzsche museum in Weimar and used expressions of Nietzsche's, such as "lords of the earth" in Mein Kampf. The Nazis made selective use of Nietzsche's philosophy.

Alfred Baeumler was perhaps the most notable exponent of Nietzschean thought in Nazi Germany. Baeumler had published his book "Nietzsche, Philosopher and Politician" in 1931, before the Nazis' rise to power, and subsequently published several editions of Nietzsche's work during the Third Reich.

Charles Darwin

Charles Darwin is best known for his contributions to evolutionary biology. His proposition that all species of life have descended from a common ancestor is now widely accepted and considered a fundamental concept in science.

According to Abraham Isaac Cook, a zionist rabbi from early 20th century, evolution was the most important exponent of religious zionism:

"The theory of evolution (hitpattehut) is increasingly conquering the world at this time, and, more so than all other philosophical theories, conforms to the kabbalistic secrets of the world. Evolution, which proceeds on a path of ascendancy, provides an optimistic foundation for the world. How is it possible to despair at a time when we see that everything evolves and ascends? When we penetrate the inner meaning of ascending evolution, we find in it the divine element shining with absolute brilliance. It is precisely the Ein Sof in actu which manages to bring to realization that which is Ein Sof in potentia."

(Kook, Orot Hakodesh II:537)

Abraham Isaac Kook

Eramus Darwin, Charles Darwin's grandfather, was a founding member of the Lunar Society of Birmingham and had been a freemason throughout his life. One of Eramus's sons, Francis Darwin, was made a mason in Tyrian Lodge, No. 253, at Derby, in 1807. Also, one of Francis's sons, Reginald Darwin, was made a mason in Tyrian Lodge in 1804. Charles himself was not listed as a freemason, but he comes from a long line of freemasons who have their roots in the kabbalah teachings.

The fathers / grandfathers of these major philosophers were religious leaders and influencers in their communities. They were all kabbalists and wanted one thing: to get rid of God in the minds of people. Here's a quote from one the most known freemason that explains the kabbalah's end goal:

We shall unleash the Nihilists and the atheists, and we shall provoke a formidable social cataclysm which in all its horror will show clearly to the nations the effect of absolute atheism, origin of savagery and of the most bloody turmoil. (Albert Pike wrote to Mazzini, dated August 15, 1871)

Nihilism is often associated with the German philosopher Friedrich Nietzsche, who provided a detailed diagnosis of nihilism as a widespread phenomenon of Western culture. Nietzsche characterized nihilism as emptying the world and especially human existence of meaning, purpose, comprehensible truth, or essential value. This observation stems in part from Nietzsche's perspectivism, or his notion that "knowledge" is always by someone of some thing: it is always bound by perspective, and it is never mere fact.

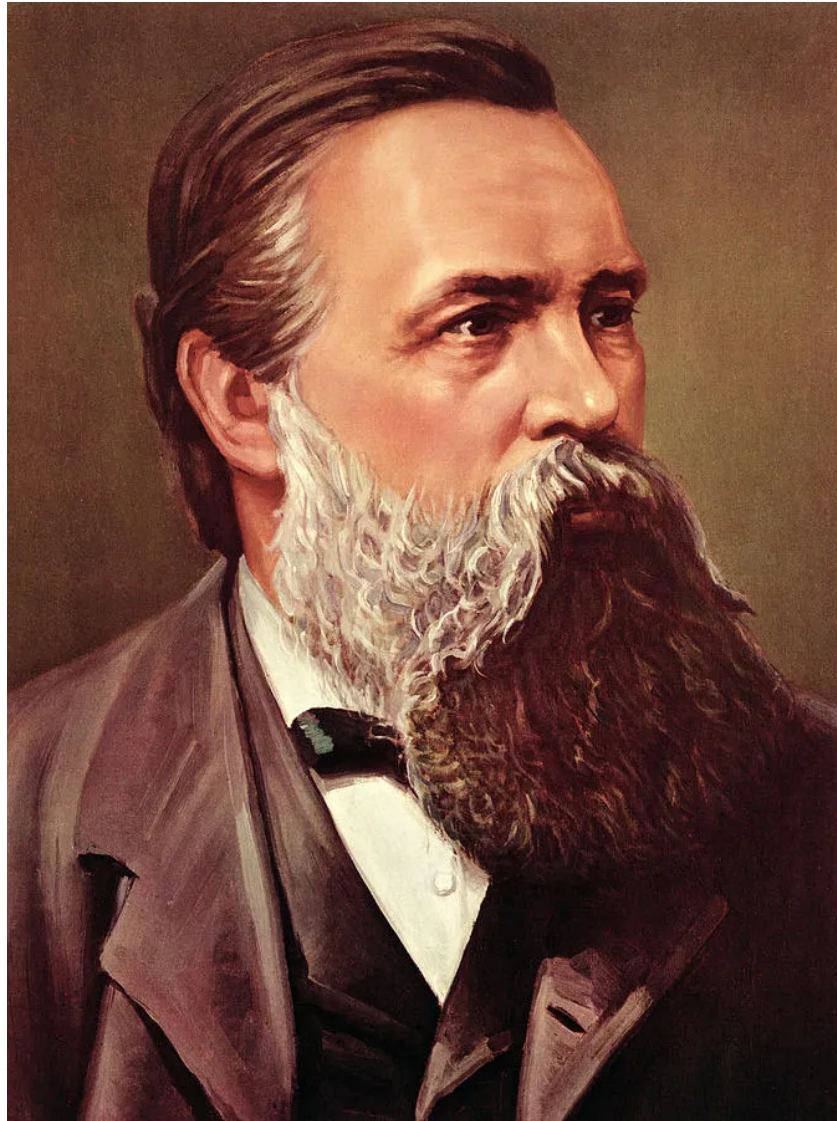

In order for people to become nihilists or atheists, the kabbalah needed to create narratives that people could latch onto. This would create revolutionary parties that would end up rising up against governments and end up starting the world wars.

Bolsheviks and the Rise of Communism

Over the next forty years, as social-democratic parties rose across Europe and parts of the world, so did the publication of the Communist Manifesto alongside them, in hundreds of editions in thirty languages. Marx and Engels wrote a new preface for the 1882 Russian edition, translated by Georgi Plekhanov in Geneva. In it they wondered if Russia could directly become a communist society, or would become a capitalist first like other European countries.

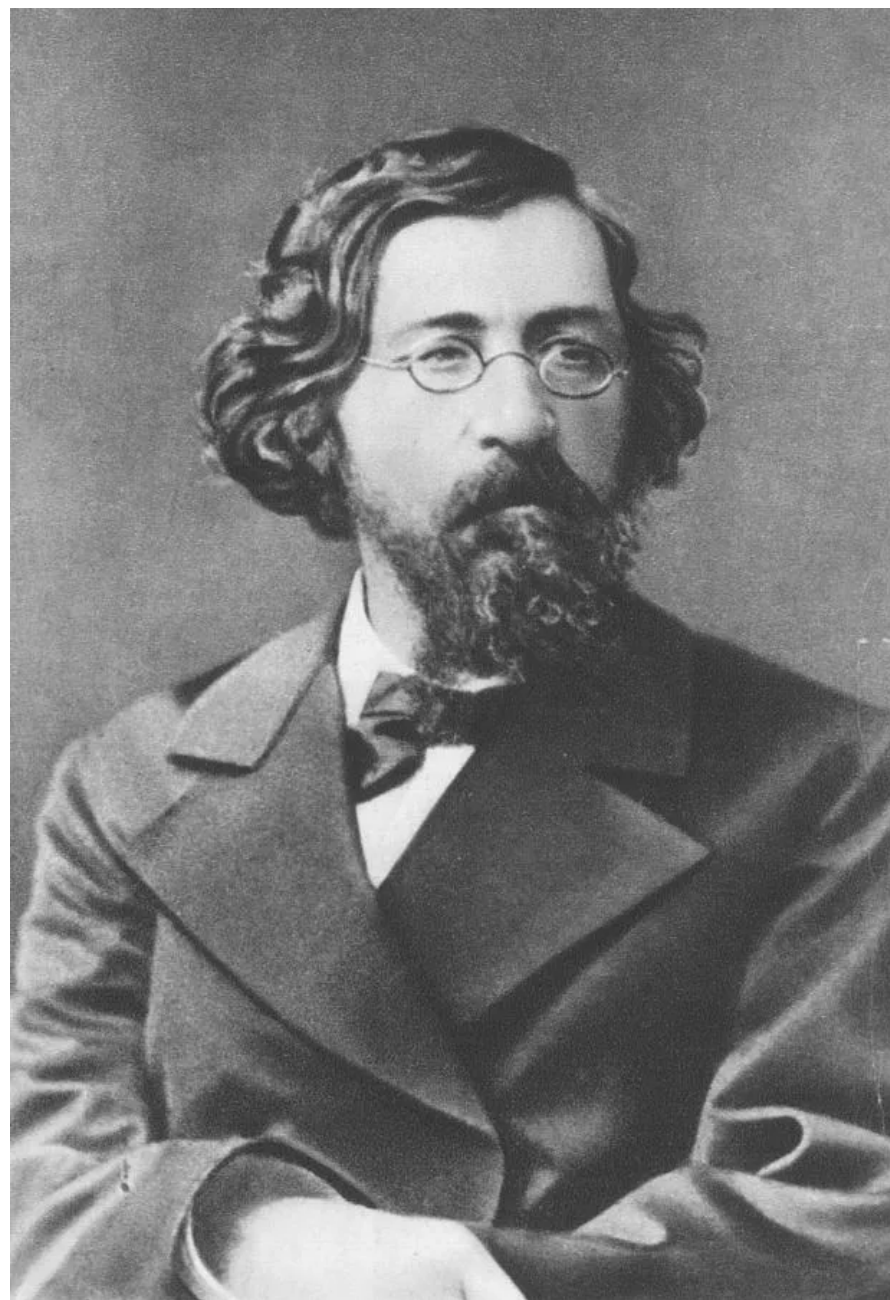

Friedrich Engels

Vladimir Lenin read Nikolay Chernyshevsky's 1863 pro-revolutionary novel What Is to Be Done?. Lenin's mother was concerned by her son's radicalization, and was instrumental in convincing the Interior Ministry to allow him to return to the city of Kazan, but not the Kazan University. On his return, he joined Nikolai Fedoseev's revolutionary circle, through which he discovered Karl Marx's 1867 book Capital.

Nikolay Chernyshevsky

In September 1889, the Lenin's family moved to the city of Samara, where Lenin joined Alexei Sklyarenko's socialist discussion circle. There, Lenin fully embraced Marxism and produced a Russian language translation of Marx and Friedrich Engels's 1848 political pamphlet, The Communist Manifesto. He began to read the works of the Russian Marxist Georgi Plekhanov, agreeing with Plekhanov's argument that Russia was moving from feudalism to capitalism. Socialism would be implemented by the proletariat, or urban working class, rather than the peasantry.

Georgi Plekhanov

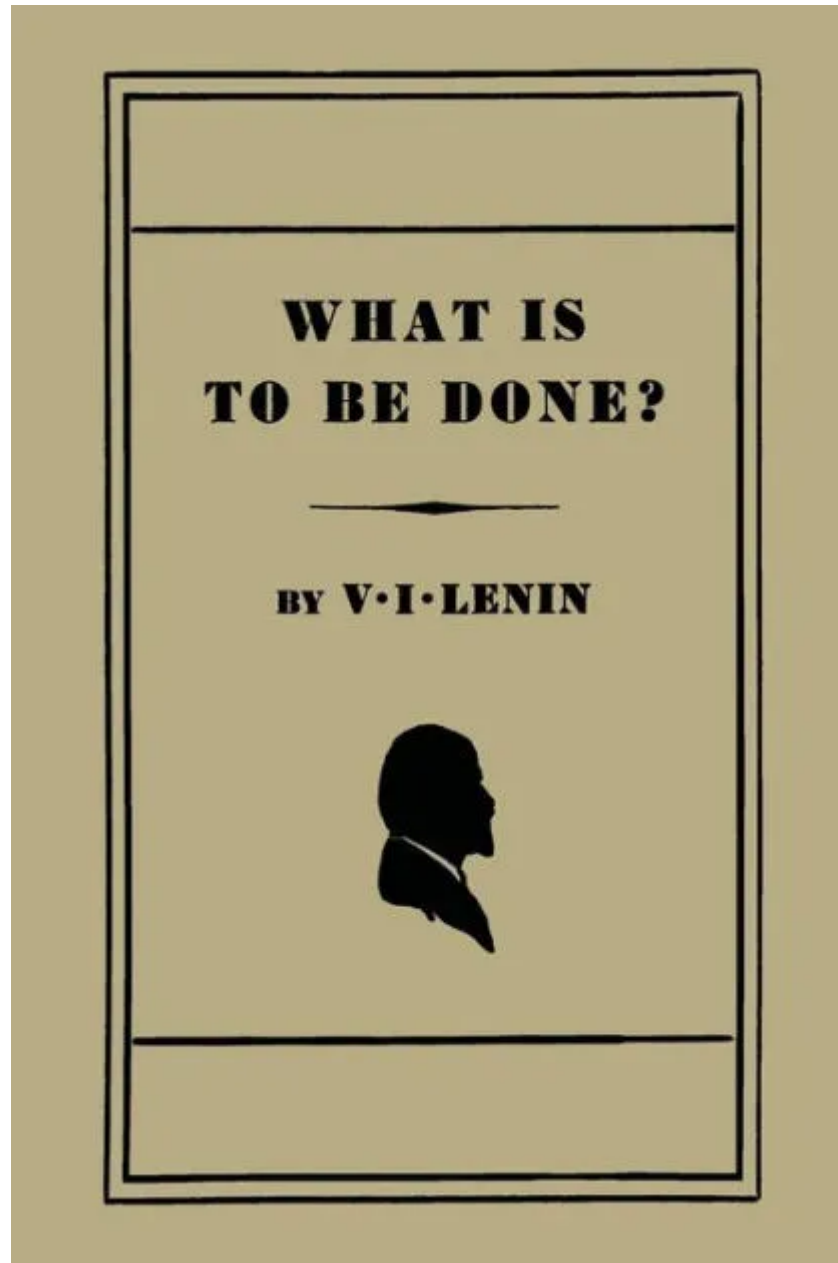

In reaction to the pogroms and other oppressions of the Tsarist period, Jews increasingly became politically active. Jewish participation in The General Jewish Labor Bund, colloquially known as the Bund, and in the Bolshevik movements, was directly influenced by the pogroms. Similarly, the organization of Jewish self-defense leagues, which stopped the pogromists in certain areas during the second Kishinev pogrom, such as Hovevei Zion, led to a strong embrace of Zionism, especially by Russian Jews.

General Jewish Labor Bund

Lenin's political pamphlet What Is to Be Done?, written in 1901, helped to precipitate the Bolsheviks' split from the Mensheviks. In Germany, the book was published in 1902, but in Russia, strict censorship outlawed its publication and distribution. One of the main points of Lenin's writing was that a revolution can only be achieved by a strong, professional leadership with deep dedication to Marxist theoretical principles and an organization that spanned through the whole of Russia.

Born to a wealthy Ukrainian-Jewish family in Yanovka Leon Trotsky embraced Marxism after moving to Mykolaiv in 1896. In 1898, he was arrested for revolutionary activities and subsequently exiled to Siberia. He escaped from Siberia in 1902 and moved to London, where he befriended Vladimir Lenin. In 1903, he sided with Julius Martov's Mensheviks against Lenin's Bolsheviks during the Russian Social Democratic Labour Party's initial organizational split. Trotsky helped organize the failed Russian Revolution of 1905, after which he was again arrested and exiled to Siberia. Here is a quote from Trotsky from 1917:

“We must turn Russia into a desert populated by white negroes upon whom we shall impose a tyranny such as the most terrible Eastern despots never dreamt of. The only difference is that this will be a left-wing tyranny, not a right-wing tyranny. It will be a red tyranny and not a white one. We mean the word ‘red’ literally, because we shall shed such floods of blood as will make all the human losses suffered in the capitalist wars pale by comparison. The biggest bankers across the ocean will work in the closest possible contact with us. If we win the revolution, we shall establish the power of Zionism upon the wreckage of the revolution’s funeral, and we shall become a power before which the whole world will sink to its knees. We shall show what real power is. By means of terror and bloodbaths, we shall reduce the Russian intelligentsia to a state of complete stupefaction and idiocy and to an animal existence.”
(‘Trotsky’s White Negros, Mike Walsh’)

Leon Trotsky

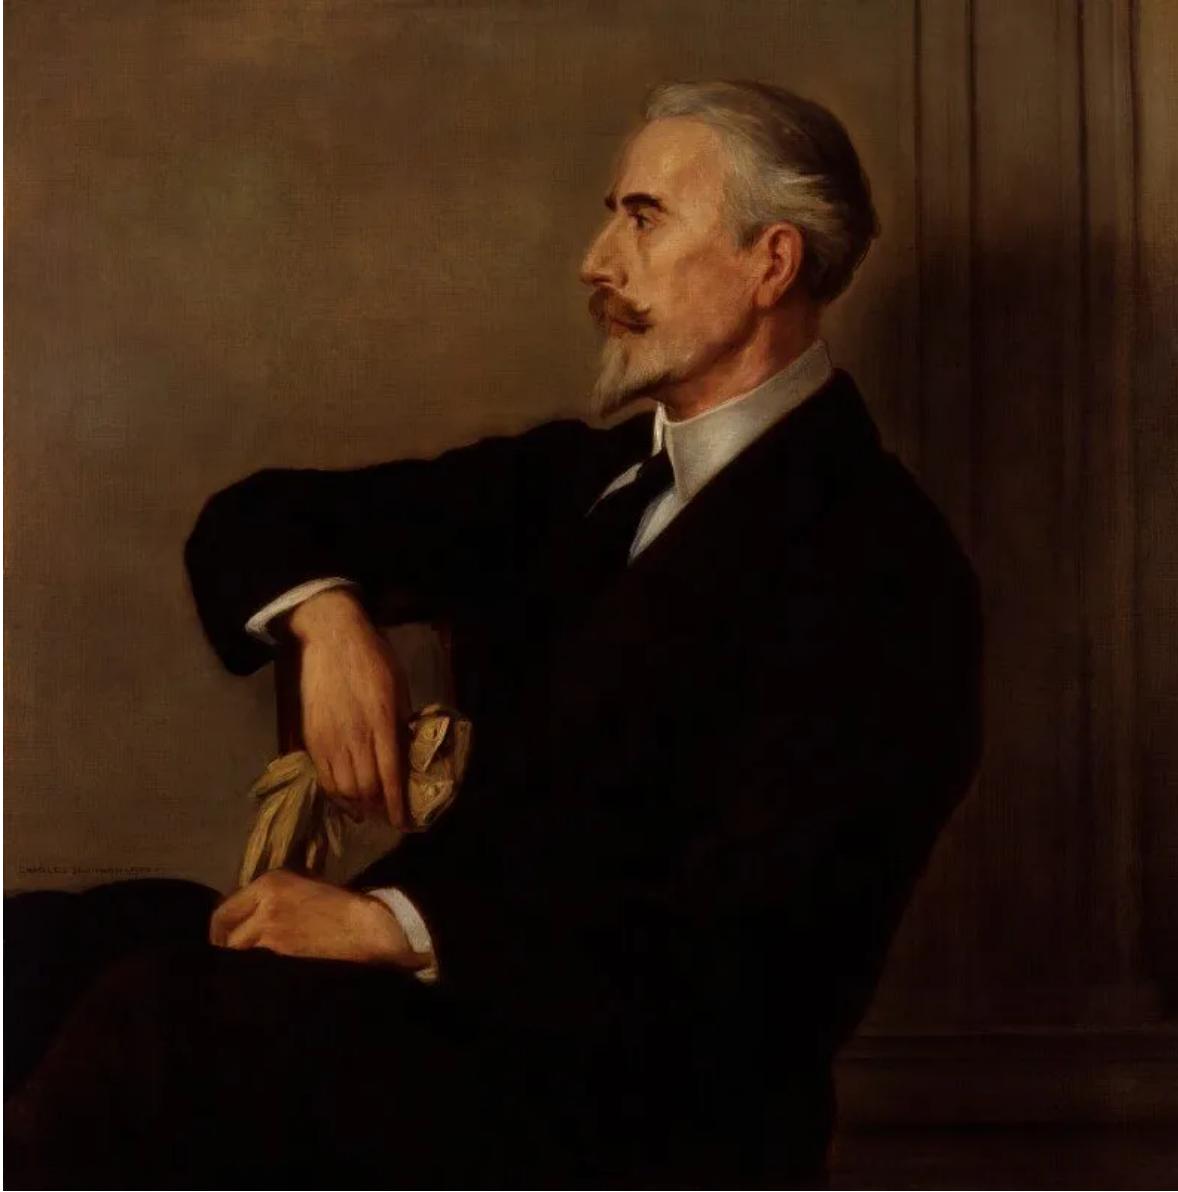

The primary financier of the Russian revolutionary movement 1905–1917 was Jacob Schiff, of Kuhn Loeb and Co., New York. In particular Schiff had provided the money for the distribution of revolutionary propaganda among Russians prisoners-of-war in Japan in 1905 by the American journalist George Kennan who, more than any other individual, was responsible for turning American public and official opinion against Czarist Russia. Kennan subsequently related that it was thanks to Schiff that 50,000 Russian soldiers were revolutionized and formed the cadres that laid the basis for the March 1917 Revolution and the consequent Bolshevik coup of November. The reaction of bankers from Wall Street and The City towards the overthrow of the Czar was enthusiastic.

Wickham Steed with the support of The Times' proprietor, Lord Northcliffe, exposed the financiers to obtain the recognition of the Bolshevik regime, which still had a very uncertain future. Steed stated to House that it was Jacob Schiff, Warburg and other bankers who were behind the diplomatic moves in favor of the Bolsheviks:

I insisted that, unknown to him, the prime movers were Jacob Schiff, Warburg, and other international financiers, who wished above all to bolster up the Jewish Bolsheviks in order to secure a field for German and Jewish exploitation of Russia. (Henry Wickham Steed, "Through Thirty Years 1892-1922 A personal narrative")

Henry Steed

The Russian Imperial Romanov family were shot and bayoneted to death by Bolshevik revolutionaries under Yakov Yurovsky in Yekaterinburg on the night of 16–17 July 1918. Also murdered that night were members of the imperial entourage who had accompanied them. The bodies were taken to the Koptyaki forest, where they were stripped, buried, and mutilated with grenades to prevent identification.

American Jewish greeting cards were popular among European Jews. Upon these cards was depicted a rooster with the head of Tsar Nicholas II. Underneath, written in Hebrew, “This is a sacrificial animal so is my cleaning, it will be my replacement and cleansing the victim.” Following the Kabbalistic ritual of swinging the fowl the creature is killed. “This rooster dies, and I have along, good and peaceful life.” The words are pronounced three times.

The four kaballah Jews—Marx, Engels, Lenin and Trotsky—who helped to destroy the Christian Russia of the tsars and replace it with an atheistic Communism in which 66 million Russian Christians were put to death in the gulags run by the cheka. They were also responsible for WWI, which would lead into WWII. The total number of military and civilian casualties in World War I was about 40 million. World War II was also one of the deadliest military conflict in history. An estimated total of 70–85 million people perished, or about 3% of the 2.3 billion people on Earth in 1940.

Bosheviks

The rise of Communism and the Bolsheviks caused WWI and they had a major influence on WWII as well. WWII would see the rise of Nietzsche's work when Adolf Hitler decided to use it for his philosophy in Mein Kampf.

The Kabbalah / Freemason Influence over Adolf Hitler and the Nazis

One of the end goals of the Kabbalah has been to create a group of people who lack all morals, don't believe in God and are complete nihilists. For this to happen, they needed a narrative that would force people away from the thought of God and the creation of the Earth in Genesis. In the 19th century they began spreading their first idea: the first human civilization was not the people mentioned in the Bible from Mesopotamia but was the ancient Aryan race from Atlantis.

Before the Big Bang Theory, there was the Aryans

Helana Blavatsky, formed the Theosophical Society in 1875, and wrote works such as Isis Unveiled, and The Secret Doctrine, which are considered the “bibles” of Freemasonry. Largely self-educated, she developed an interest in Western esotericism (kabbalah) during her teenage years. In 1875 New York City, Blavatsky co-founded the Theosophical Society with Olcott and William Quan Judge. Blavatsky described Theosophy as "the synthesis of science, religion and philosophy", proclaiming that it was reviving an "Ancient Wisdom" which underlay all the world's religions.

William Henry Goodyear (1846 – 1923), a noted American archaeologist, art historian, and museum curator (and son of Charles Goodyear of Goodyear Tires) was convinced that the swastika symbol actually originated among pre-Aryan people living in ancient Europe. According to his thesis, the Aryans migrated to Europe from India.

*“...the Swastika was an “Aryan emblem”... The supposition that the Aryan Hindus carried the Swastika with them to India is...perfectly tenable, since it belongs to early prehistoric art of Europe...” (William Henry Goodyear, Grammar of the Lotus, 1891)*

This Aryan / Atlantis connection was brought into the modern era by the famous Russian mystic Helena Blavatsky. Her influence on Adolf Hitler and other top Nazis such as Heinrich Himmler completely altered the course of the 20th century.

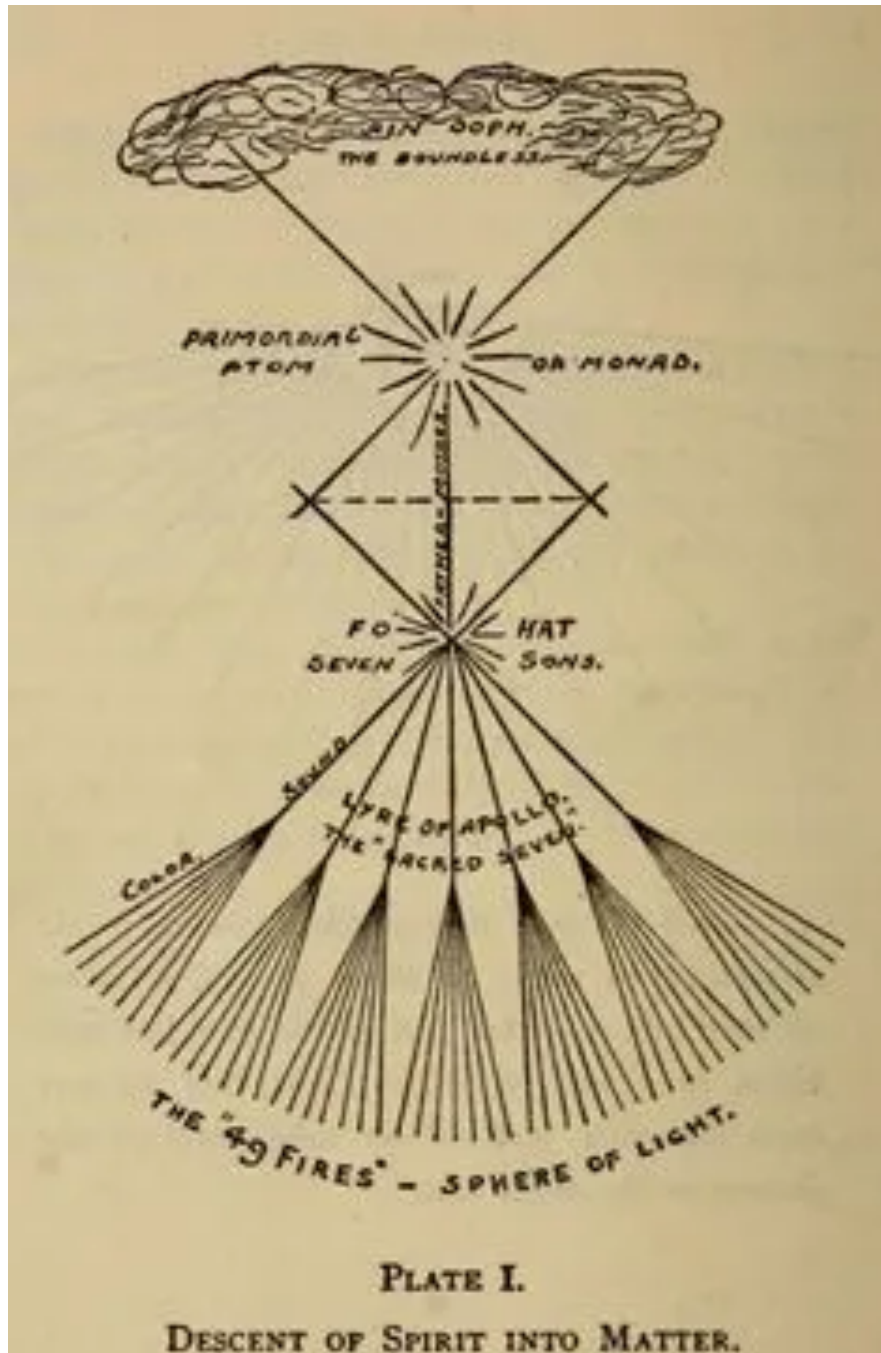

Heinrich Himmler

HEINRICH HIMMEL

Ignoring the Biblical “God-made-man-in-six-days” concept, Blavatsky asserted the antiquity, primacy, and universality of the so-called Doctrine of the Fall of Man and His Descent into Matter. This forms the root doctrine of much of eastern thought (Hinduism, Buddhism), Greek philosophy, and modern western esoteric and occult circles.

"All Things From One."

It teaches that beneath the flesh, men and women are "gods" or "eternal souls" that have fallen into the "material world" from our higher "spiritual home" in the heavens back to which the soul must eventually return. During its descent, the soul has put on a thick vesture of clothing in the form of a physical body, so that it no longer recognizes its own inner, eternal, and divine nature.

This Aryan / Atlantis theory was supported by some 19th and early 20th century Theosophist scholars and intellectuals. Austrian philosopher, educator, and social thinker Rudolf Steiner (1861-1925), wrote:

*"The greatest part of the Atlantean population declined, and from a small portion are descended the so-called Aryans who comprise present-day civilized humanity." (Rudolf Steiner, Cosmic Memory)*

Rudolf Steiner

Freemasons believe the postulated Third Eye is associated with the forehead above and between the two eyes. They also believe as our two eyes see outward at material things, this single Eye sees inward at spiritual matters—like the soul. When the Atlanteans devolved into the Aryans, the Third Eye atrophied. Blavatsky wrote:

“...the “third eye” was once a physiological organ, and...later on, owing to the gradual disappearance of spirituality and increase of materiality (spiritual nature being extinguished by the physical), it became an atrophied organ.” (Helena Blavatsky, The Secret Doctrine, 1888)

Albert Pike (1809-1892) believed that true Freemasonry represented something akin to the ancient doctrine of the Aryan race. Pike, a pillar of American Masonry, is best known for his 1871 book, Morals and Dogma of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite of Freemasonry. He penned two other noteworthy books that examine ancient Aryan spirituality: Aryan Deities and Worship as Contained in the Rig-Veda, and Irano-Aryan Faith and Doctrine as Contained in the Zend Avesta.

“The world owes all its correct and profound conceptions of the Deity, and its knowledge of the existence of the human soul, to the great Aryan race.” (Albert Pike, Irano-Aryan Faith and Doctrine as Contained in the Zend Avesta)

Albert Pike and Helena Blavatsky were proud satanists and Freemasons and they wrote books talking about their love for the light bringer Lucifer. I dive more into this topic in THE ANCIENT OCCULT RELIGION OF FREEMASONRY thread.

Interestingly, having accepted many of Blavatsky's ideas, Germany's occult leaders—who rose to power decades after Buck and Pike died of old age—also acknowledged the Third Eye, and even believed Blavatsky's explanation of its ancient Atlantean origins. Descriptions of the Eye can be found in the writings of several Nazi leaders.

“...all the human culture, all the results of art, science, and technology that we see before us today, are almost exclusively the creative product of the Aryan. ...he alone was the founder of all higher humanity... He is the Prometheus of mankind from whose bright forehead the divine spark of genius has sprung at all times...” (Adolf Hitler, Mein Kampf, 1925)
