

PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY:

- Adept leader and public speaker, experienced in communicating complicated information to varied audiences; a professional with diverse capabilities and a creative “common sense” approach
- Program Management experience as a defense contractor supporting the Joint Staff
- Extensive leadership and management experience as a former military officer
- Recognized expertise in current and developing military and intelligence doctrine
- Extensive knowledge of strategic intelligence community assets, existing programs, and organizations
- Department of Defense security clearance level of Top Secret

EDUCATION:

- Master of Science in Strategic Intelligence, Joint Military Intelligence College, Washington, D.C., 2001
Additional certificate of focused study in Intelligence Collection
- Bachelor of Arts in Sociology, Salisbury State University, Salisbury, Maryland 1989

EMPLOYMENT HISTORY:

08/03-Present    Principal Systems Integration Engineer, Concurrent Technologies Corporation (CTC)

- Currently assigned as the primary advisor on Requirements and content development in the Joint Knowledge
- Developed strategic operations plans to reflect Knowledge Management and Development strategies
- Facilitate collaboration across Combatant Commands and the extended joint community
- Conduct oversight of advanced distributed learning courseware development
- Manage program-related schedule, budget, scope, and project personnel for various assigned programs
- Developed and provided presentations on program status for senior corporate management and senior DOD officials

08/01-08/03    Anti-Terrorism/Force Protection Officer/Intelligence Operations Officer, US Army, HQ
Special Operations Command, Europe (SOCEUR)

- Developed and executed intelligence plans and operations in support of Special Operations forces operating in the European Command Area of Responsibility
- Provided Antiterrorism and Force Protection advice and assistance, and threat analysis to U.S. Special Operations forces deployed in the European Command Area of Responsibility
- Developed and executed Antiterrorism/Force Protection plans for operations and exercises conducted by Special Operations Command, Europe.
- Developed and implemented Antiterrorism and Force Protection (AT/FP) policies, plans, and procedures; supported program oversight; conducted vulnerability assessments of subordinate activities and rendered analysis of all Force Protection issues; identified shortcomings for improvement
- Founding member of the European Command AT/FP Working Group comprised of representatives from all European Command Directorates formulated to write Agency-level Antiterrorism policy implemented throughout the command
- Composed command-wide alerts, presentations, bulletins, reports, advisories, and other AT/FP related products
- Proposed, developed, recommended and wrote issue positions, program evaluations, operation proposals, and policy guidance related to agency-level global antiterrorism efforts.

03/99 – 05/00 Company Commander, US Army, 308th MI Battalion, Redstone Arsenal, AL

- Commanded Counterintelligence Company, with 7 subordinate detachments and resident offices dispersed across the Southeastern United States
- Responsible for planning and executing multi-disciplined counterintelligence operations, investigations, and analysis in support of U.S. Army Special Access Programs and conventional forces
- Managed and provided leadership to 38 subordinate officers and soldiers

01/98 – 02/99 Battalion Adjutant, U.S. Army 716th MI Battalion, 902d MI Group, Fort Meade, MD

- Managed the personnel and financial administration for a 250 person Military Intelligence Battalion
- Provided Executive Administrative Assistance to the Battalion Commander
- Served as the Battalion Executive Officer for 2 months during the executive officers absence
- Planned and executed all administrative activities for the Battalion
- Supervised 7 individuals in the battalion personal administrative center

07/97-01/98 Special Assistant to the United Nations Transitional Administrator for Eastern Slavonia (UNTAES)
U.S. Army HQ UNTAES, Operation Joint Guard

- Responsible for the collection, analysis, and dissemination of strategic intelligence on Eastern Slavonia to US Intelligence agencies.
- Provided discrete advice and assistance on intelligence matters to the US Ambassador serving as UN Transitional Administrator
- Conducted liaison with U.S. Military and Other Government Agencies on security situation in the region
- Provided Weekly operations briefings to U.S. Embassy personnel

01/97-06/97 Operations Officer, U.S. Army 716th MI Battalion, 902d MI Group, Fort Meade, MD

- Responsible for all operations and investigative support to a U.S. Army Special Access Program and select special operations forces
- Conducted annual assessment of security status of program and reported to Special Access Program Oversight Committee.

06/96-01/97 Assistant S3 Plans Officer, U.S. Army, 902nd Military Intelligence Group, Fort Meade, MD,

- Developed program and policy recommendations and implementing plans for a variety of functional areas to include: Counterintelligence Investigations Standard Operating Procedures, the Army's Technology Protection program, and support to various Army Special Access Programs.

08/95-06/96 Detachment Commander, U.S. Army, 7th Special Forces Group (Airborne), Fort Bragg, NC,

- Commanded a 36 person Military Intelligence Detachment providing all-source intelligence, counterintelligence, force protection, and interrogation support to a 1400 person Special Forces Group
- Provided all-source intelligence products to the Group Commander and subordinate Battalion Commanders
- Deployed to the SOUTHCOM AOR to conduct real world intelligence operations.

11/93-08/95 Group Counterintelligence Staff Officer, U.S. Army, 7th Special Forces Group (Airborne), Fort Bragg, NC

- Chief of the Group Counterintelligence Section and Counterintelligence Staff Officer, responsible for providing CI, interrogation support, and advice to the Commander of 7th Special Forces Group
- Deployed into the SOUTHCOM AOR to conduct defensive counterintelligence and interrogation operations.

OTHER PROFESSIONAL TRAINING:

- June 1988, U.S. Army Airborne Training
- August 1989, U.S. Army Field Artillery Officer Basic Course
- February 1993, U.S. Army Military Intelligence Officer Transition Course
- April 1993, U.S. Army Military Intelligence Officer Advance Course
- September 1993, U.S. Army Counterintelligence Officer Course
- June 1994, U.S. Army Combined Arms Staff Service School
- March 1995, U.S. Army JFK Special Warfare Center, Advanced Special Operations Techniques Source Administrators Course.
- November 2003, Defense Acquisition University, Acquisitions 101 Course

PROFESSIONAL SKILLS:

- Performance of Strategic Intelligence Planning/Analysis
- Administrative/technical problem solving
- U.S. Government Business Development
- Customer/Management relations
- Military Intelligence and Intelligence Community Expert
- Credentialed U.S. Army Counterintelligence Special Agent
- Excellent Writer and Briefer
- Proficient with Microsoft Office Suite
- Problem solving
- Airborne Qualified